JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

KIRK AND GRANT

The imbecility of the judiciary of North Carolina is, if possible, a shade more disgraceful to the present administration of affairs in that commonwealth than the insolent rapacity of its Executive. A chief justice who first issues a writ and subsequently goes out of his way to make excuses for the man who flings it back into his face is neither a pleasing nor a dignified pillar of jurisprudence. Yet this is precisely what Chief Justice Pearson, of North Carolina, appears to have been doing. Kirk, chief of lambs, seizes a casual citizen and prods him about the country with vicarious bayonets. Pearson, incarnating in a singular manner the majesty of the law, issues a writ of habeas corpus enjoining Kirk to stop. Kirk glancing at the writ carelessly, mentions to the messenger of the law that "this thing is played out," and proceeds to prod his victim with renewed vigor. The messenger returning with this respectful response to Pearson, Pearson acquiesces cheerfully in the obiter dictum of Kirk as a decision, and contents himself with suggesting to Governor Holden whether it might not, on the whole, be better to curb Kirk. The upshot of all which is that the citizens of North Carolina can no longer look for protection in their peaceable pursuits within the law, and that if they are to be protected at all they must protect themselves outside of it.

This they cannot even do by the comparatively inoffensive device of flight. Another of Kirk's victims, wisely suspicious of the power of North Carolinian justice to "have his body" out of the grip of Kirk, took it into his keeping and ran away with himself into Virginia. There he sate down and reated foolishly fancying himself in safety under the ægis of the Old Dominion. But for Kirk American State sovereignty is as much "played out" as British muniments of personal right. He gayly transgressed the Virginian line, bagged his North Carolinian, and carried him back. Whatrefuge, then, remains to a people so persecuted?

"The Federal authority," answers some iqnocent youth fresh from the perusal of Greeley's American Conflict "of the best government the world ever saw."

Ah—indeed! But Kirk is loose in North Carolina, and the best government the world ever saw is smoking heavy Partagas cigars at Long Branch in New Jersey. —N. Y. World.

THE "RUIN SOLDIER" IN NORTH CAROLINA.—In the decision of Judge Pearson, of North Carolina, in the habeas corpus case, to the legal points of which we have heretofore made reference, we observe that he speaks somewhat apologetically of Col. Kirk's contemptuous allusion to the habeas corpus as played out as the "flippant speech of a rude soldier." More than once he speaks in this vein of the "rude soldier." It would seem that there are not "rude soldiers" enough in the service of the government of North Carolina, for, according to a dispatch published elsewhere, three companies of artillery have gone from Fortress Monroe to aid Governor Holden to "enforce the laws of that State."

We have no doubt of Judge Pearson's conscientiousness, and we dare say he would agree with us that it is a pity that the reconstruction of the Union cannot be effected without the aid of "rude soldiers," and also, as a general rule, that "rude soldiers" are much to be deprecated. Such seemed to be the opinion of our forefathers, when, in the Declaration of Independence, they complained of King George that "he has kept among us, in time of peace, standing armies without the consent of our Legislatures," and also that "he has affected to render the military independent of and superior to the civil power;" and further, "for quartering large bodies of armed troops among us," and besides, "for protecting them, by a mock trial, from punishment for any murders which they should commit on the inhabitants of these States." These "rude soldiers" are the trouble of Europe at this moment. There are some five millions of them there, a huge excrescence which the people are eager to throw off but which is essential to royal power and ambition, and so the continent is lapped of its physical and moral vigor to keep alive this military tumor upon the body politic. "Rude soldiers" have always laughed at habeas corpus and all other civil rights. They are trained to regard physical force as the supreme law, and as to the bulwarks and muniments of constitutional freedom, they are proud and happy to feel that no such fortifications and defences are laid down in any works upon the art of war which they have ever had the honor of reading, and consequently can be of no earthly account. Relying entirely upon brute force, they consider the great principles of civil and constitutional liberty to be as far beyond their province as their comprehension. The habeas corpus act and similar securities for personal rights and liberties are as unintelligible to them as any other branch of useful knowledge, and that which the English barons wrested from John, and have preserved with undying tenacity ever since, a North Carolina militia man tears to pieces, and spits upon, all which the Chief Justice of the State makes perfectly satisfactory by styling him a "rude soldier." "Rude" enough, we have no doubt, though perhaps not as much either of a soldier or a gentleman as another native of North Carolina, Andrew Jackson, who, at the head of his victorious army at New Orleans, submitted to arrest by a judge whom, acting in defense of the public interests, he had himself arrested under martial law, and paid the fine of $1,000 himself, refusing offers on all sides to pay it, at the same time protecting the court which could not have stood a moment against his opposition. But it is idle to talk of republican soldiers like Jackson in these days of "rude soldiers" like Kirk, whose contempt of the most sacred rights of the citizens is to be palliated by their lack of common decency and common sense. —Baltimore Sun, 27th July.

THE decision of Judge Pearson, in the late habeas corpus case, is strictly of a partisan character—yet the Judge could not get around the illegality of the suspension of the writ by Holden and his hirelings, and we do not see how Holden can get around his decision. Let Holden call off his bloodhound Kirk, discharge his militia and proclaim the State at peace, and we assert there would be peace—it is only the ghosts of his damnable sins that are haunting this miserable man.—Roanoke News.

SECRET ORGANIZATIONS—UNION LEAGUES, KU KLUX KLANS, &c.

We have been always opposed from our youth, to secret organizations. We have never been a member of any such organization, nor have we at any time favored or abetted or approved them. We were never a Know Nothing, nor a Union Leaguer, nor a Hero of America, nor a Ku Klux, and such has been our prejudice against secret societies, we have never become a member of those excellent institutions, the Masonic or Odd Fellows order, or of the Temperance order.

We have never been favorable, especially, to secret political organizations of any kind. However much good may be designed by them, we have always regarded them as evil and opposed to our Republican institutions.

All these political organizations may have existed and may still exist in the State, and good men may have been induced to join them without seeing their evil tendencies, but if we had at any time joined them, and taken, as it is said they do, a solemn oath to preserve the secrets of the order, we would endure to be flayed alive before we would reveal their secrets or betray them. Such conduct we consider the height of meanness and villainy. If we had unwittingly joined such an association and discovered their evil tendencies, we should have abandoned them, but we would never have violated a solemn oath under any circumstances and betrayed them. The man who would do this, to screen himself and implicate others, is a cowardly dog and deserves the execration of mankind.

But while we condemn all secret political organizations as evil in their tendency, we are far from thinking that every man is a bad man or a bad citizen, or is guilty of a high crime, because he joined the Know Nothings, or the Union Leagues or the Heroes of America, or the Ku Klux or anything of the kind. There is nothing wrong in becoming a member of a secret association, nothing unlawful in it, nothing deserving of censure, nothing punishable in it, unless in joining it, your purpose was or your oath bound you to do an unlawful or wicked thing or unless you have committed an unlawful or wicked act. It is the evil intent and the unlawful act, which constitutes the crime. If you are guiltless in these respects, the law cannot harm you, nor has any one the right, either a civil or military Court, to punish you for your connection with them.

WHAT JUDGE PEARSON DECIDED.

Chief Justice Pearson decided in the habeas corpus cases before him.

1. That the Governor could declare a county in insurrection.

2. That he could employ the militia to make arrests in a county in insurrection.

3. That arrests so made were made only in aid of and subject to the civil authority.

4. That it was the duty of the Governor to turn all persons under arrest in counties in insurrection over at once to the civil authorities.

5. That the petitioners for the writs of habeas corpus were entitled to be brought before the Chief Justice to the end their imprisonment might be inquired into, and that Gov. Holden must bring them and surrender them to the civil authority—that is what he decided as he will tell any one who asks him, and his decision is as plain to the above effect as language can make it.

But what has Gov. Holden done? Why he has expressly refused to obey the writ, and placed himself in direct opposition to the law, as expounded by the highest judicial officer in the State, and for this armed opposition and hostility to the law, he is subject to a fine of $1,000 in each case; to be indicted and impeached, and to be proceeded against for contempt of Court.

One thing be noted,—the Judge studiously avoids saying a word about the character of the armed force used by Holden; he was pressed by Counsel to do so but he said in terms, he would not determine that question, but this much he said, that the measures used must be legal. Now we repeat what we have often said, there is no sanction of law for Holden's army and armed movement and resistance to the law.

JAMES E. BOYD, OF ALAMANCE.

Two weeks ago, when Kirk arrested this young man, we had confidence in him.—The respectability of his family and his genteel deportment so far as we knew, led us to think well of him. When he came here, several days ago, under one of Kirk's guards and proposed to give bail—$50,000 bail—we doubted him. If he had been a true man, a man of integrity, knowing that he was illegally arrested, he would have laid in jail until the law released him, or until his persecutors let him go.

Our confidence in young Boyd was not restored by the publication of his card in the SENTINEL. It had leaked out that he had turned State's evidence to save his own head, by implicating others whom he had sworn to defend and protect, and he published the aforesaid card for his vindication. In that card he denied that he had told anything or that he knew anything to tell. He has since repeated the same thing to others privately.

It is now rumored and it will probably be announced in the Standard to-morrow, that Boyd confesses to have been a Ku Klux and that he and others will tell wonderful stories affecting the characters of good citizens in Alamance in relation to the hanging of Outlaw at Graham. It is said that many Ku Klux in the county of Alamance are coming out to acknowledge their crimes, &c. It is also rumored that they have evidence against Judge Kerr, &c., &c., in Caswell.

Now, these Ku Klux traitors, might possibly tell the truth, but we could not believe any man, after he had violated a solemn oath voluntarily taken. If Boyd and others shall make the confessions rumored, we could not believe anything they say.

The people of Alamance have gotten rid of Boyd. Let them nominate good and true men and stand up for right and truth at the election. If any man in Alamance, calling himself a Conservative, was guilty of the hanging of Outlaw, let him insist upon a fair trial, and let the people see that he has fair trial. We do not palliate or defend the murder of Outlaw or any other crime, but we insist that every man shall have a fair trial.

"POOR JOSIAH TURNER"

The Governor, writing in the Standard, says, "The people of Rockingham know and feel that Judge Settle, aided by Governor Reid, checked the Ku Klux and counteracted your treachery in that county in August 1867. Alamance and Caswell continued to follow your advice for assassination, and now they have you to thank for their sufferings."

You lying fellow! We spoke in all these counties against secret societies. Gov. Reid heard us at Rockingham in August 1867. We depicted to the people the horrors of assassinations which are always the work of secret political societies, and we solemnly warned them against all manner of secret clubs.

One Groom, a vice President of the damnably League, who with a League Governor, and negro troops are now trampling on the Constitution and the rights of every good citizen, that they may put down all other secret political organizations and have none but their own, rose up and said, he agreed with us that secret societies ought to be put down, both Leagues and Ku Klux.

We congratulated this Leaguer that we were so far agreed, and we admonished him, since he was willing to quit the Leagues, to quit stealing also.

This was done in the presence of Gov. Reid, and was received by the vast concourse of people present with decided approval.

We checked the Ku Klux movement, and forced the sneaking Leaguer's out of their diabolical secret association, and Gov. Reid is our witness to the facts.

In the last eighteen months we have made speeches from the mountains to the sea shore, and in every speech we have made we condemned Ku Klux and Leagues as deadly enemies to liberty, safety and property.

"SUBSTANTIALLY SUSTAINED."

The Governor has telegraphed to Forney that he is substantially sustained by Judge Pearson. He publishes the same false declaration in the Standard and repeats it often. Some people are surprised at this, but we are not. The Governor's life has been one of falsehood, hypocrisy and deceit.

Here is the opinion of Chief Justice Pearson:

"I declare my opinion to be that the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus has not been suspended by the action of his Excellency; * * * * he has no power to disobey the writ of habeas corpus, or to order the trial of any citizen otherwise than by jury, according to the law of the land; such action would be in excess of his power."

We told you to disobey this order if you dared, and you have done so, and we are not surprised at it. The few white men who, hitherto, have sustained you, condemn you for it. Even Menninger, your carpet-bag Secretary of State, speaks on the streets in condemnation of your course.

When you say, Chief Justice Pearson substantially sustains you, you circumstantially lie, and you know it, and the world knows it. You and Littlefield substantially, and particularly sustain each other. You agreed to, or were silent when he robbed the state, and it is said by your friend, John T. Deweese, that you shared the ill gotten gains when the State was robbed.

NORTH CAROLINA AND THE NAVY.

We were pleased to see in our sanctum yesterday, Midshipman George T. Winston, of the United States Navy. He is the son of our friend P. H. Winston, of Bertie, and a worthy representative of the paternal name. Those who knew Midshipman W. while he was at the University of North Carolina, will not be surprised to learn that he stands No. 1 in his class; though perhaps they would be a little surprised, and most agreeably, by his marked improvement in physical development. His standing at Annapolis, both with his Professors and brother officers, has done credit North Carolina.

TREED AGAIN.

It would require the vigilance of ten Arguses to watch and expose the lies that will be printed by the Standard and its Radical satellites between now and the day of the election. We have no hope of keeping up with a hundredth part of them; all we can reasonably hope to do is, to trap the "big ones" and expose them, and caution the people not to believe the smaller ones.

In its issue of this morning that mendacious sheet says, under the head of "Civil war Averted," "On that day, (Saturday last) in the hope and with the belief that the Chief Justice would order the arrest of Col. Kirk, the Ku Klux Klans in this State were preparing by thousands to rise in arms against the State authority. On that day two or three thousand of them were in Danville, Va., and vicinity, ready to advance on Col. Kirk, and their advance guard consisting of two companies, was within two miles of Yanceyville."

When we read the above we were sure it was a lie. There happened to be a gentleman in the city from that section to-day, of whom we inquired in regard to the matter, and he confirmed our own opinion on the subject.

But to make assurance doubly sure, the following telegram was sent to the Mayor of Danville, the answer to which serves as a twenty penny nail to fasten the false coin of the Standard to the counter:

"RALEIGH, N. C., July 29, 1870.

To the Mayor of Danville:—The Standard of this morning states that on last Saturday, the Ku Klux were preparing, by thousands, to rise in arms against the State authorities; that on that day two or three thousand of them were in Danville, Va., and vicinity, ready to advance on Col. Kirk, and that an advance guard of two Companies were within two miles of Yanceyville. Telegraph at once whether this is true or not.

GEORGE WILLIAMSON."

To this the following answer was received:

"DANVILLE, VA., July 29, 1870.

No Ku Klux organization ever existed in this place, and no collection of them from any other quarter has ever been seen here. No man or Company of men in or near Danville ever proposed to attack Col. Kirk.

(Signed,) H. W. COLE,
Mayor of Danville."

Let it be remembered that Gov. Holden was the author of the cock and bull story that is thus shown to be utterly false.

LET THE PEOPLE BE ON THE ALERT.

It is given out by Holden's factotum, that on to-morrow or Monday, astounding developments will be made through the Standard, by the publication of what purports to be confessions of prisoners now in the custody of Kirk. This may or may not be so, but if such papers are published they are entitled to no credit or belief, for the reason, that if made by any one, they have been extorted from the persons making them while in close custody and while threats were made against their lives in the presence of desperate armed men, these men have been promised their release if they would make confessions to suit. We have reason to know this is true.

But if such papers are published, then the public will at once see in a stronger light, that the object of Holden and company is not to subserve the ends of public justice, but to make party capital for the election and too late before the election to contradict it. Besides, what an outrage and unblushing shame to publish extended confessions in advance of the trial of parties charged! The whole course of action discloses how infamous is the purpose had in view from the beginning.

EX-GOV. BRAGG.

The deep personal malignity of Gov. Holden daily manifested through the columns of the Standard, towards Ex-Gov. Bragg, is apparent to all who read that paper, and it has been carried to such extent as to amount to persecution. Such daily personal assaults betray a wicked and depraved heart, especially, when it is known that there is not the slightest grounds for them. In former times Holden was the personal and political friend of Gov. Bragg and saw and knew much of him, and he knew him to be a gentleman of the highest and purest private and public character.—If Gov. Holden were put upon the witness stand to day, he would be bound to state that Gov. Bragg's character is of the highest order, public and private. We do not doubt that he would so state, and he knows that Gov. Bragg is as far from sympathizing with crime as any man in the State.

This malignity is made to take a political turn and is the less pardonable, because Gov. Bragg is now out of, and not seeking political life. His friends know that he neither seeks nor wants political or official position. He is quietly pursuing his profession. The assaults upon him are not only groundless, but illustrate the littleness and meanness of those who seem to delight in making them. But it is said, dogs may bark at the moon.

CARRYING OUT THE PLOT.

The Standard of this morning says, troops have been sent to Orange, Moore, Rockingham and Catawba counties. This is just as we expected would be done on the eve of the election. Of course the purpose is to intimidate and overawe the people and keep them from voting. Let the people stand firm and go to the polls and vote. They know that in a fair election we shall beat them. They have not troops enough to occupy many counties. But again we say, let the people every where vote, and if any threats are made, or means used to prevent any one freely exercising the right of suffrage, go to a U. S. Commissioner and take out a writ against the person, whoever he may be, and have him arrested.

FRENCH FORTIFICATIONS.—France has one hundred and nineteen fortresses, of which eight are of the first rank: Paris, Lyons, Strasbourg, Metz, Lille, Toulon, Brest and Cherbourg. The fortifications of Paris are stated to have cost $40,000,000, and up to 1868 there had been expended on Cherbourg $34,000,000.

TO THE PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

The circumstances under which the Republican party took charge of public affairs in North Carolina could not leave a doubt on any impartial mind as to what would be the fate of our beloved State. Time has shown that the wild and rapid career of that party has only been excelled by its ruinous consequences. Getting out with a constitution of their own adoption containing the solemn declaration that "the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus shall not be suspended," and that "all powers not therein delegated remain with the people," they have pursued a course calculated to harrass, impoverish and degrade that very people.

With a Republican Executive—a Republican Legislature—and a Republican Judiciary, they have increased the debt of the State to an unprecedented amount—the credit of the State has been destroyed—the means of the State have been entrusted to faithless and irresponsible persons, whereby heavy public losses have been sustained, fraud and corruption have become so common as scarcely to attract notice, public officers are used to control the political opinions of the people, the number of offices has been largely enhanced, and salaries and fees have been greatly increased, public places have been sold, the people, in an impoverished condition, have been required to bear the most onerous county, State and Federal taxation. Our University has been prostrated to gratify political aspirants, and we are left without means for common schools, the public means are inadequate to meet the public demands, the "Enforcement Act" of Congress, avowed to be passed to prevent the intimidation of voters, is used to intimidate Democratic and Conservative voters, under the pretext that the civil authorities can not maintain and preserve law and order, the Governor has raised a large military force just upon the eve of the election, and citizens are being seized and imprisoned without due process of law, as it is alleged and believed. All of these things, and many more, have come to pass, and if there is any one who now doubts that the Republican party is responsible for them, it would be a fruitless effort on my part to endeavor to convince him.

The Republican party according to the admissions of its own leaders are either incapable of preserving law and order, or are unwilling to do so. Among all the late slave states, Maryland, Delaware and Kentucky are the only ones where law and order is said to prevail, and these are the only ones in which the Democrats and Conservatives hold the political power. Perhaps a similar remedy here might be attended with like happy results.

It is all important to endeavor peaceably and lawfully at the ballot box to turn out faithless and incompetent public servants and to fill their places with those who are honest, capable and faithful. Denounce fraud and corruption, no matter what party it may injure and put yourselves on the side of justice and right. A small secret oath bound political factions, or societies, no matter whether they be called Ku Klux or Loyal Leagues, for they are the bane of society, and destructive to the great fundamental principles of free governments.—The incendiary torch and the assassin's dagger must cease. Neither attempt nor contenance the infliction of punishment, except by due course of law.

Avoid all breaches of the peace. Should the guilty be arrested, screen them not. But if the innocent are likely to suffer appeal through the Courts to the Constitution and laws for their vindication, and if you fail, then there is left the last great remedy, an appeal through the ballot box to the still higher Court of impeachment, THE VOICE OF THE PEOPLE THEMSELVES, to whose potent mandate political rulers must, sooner or later, yield implicit respect and obedience.

In the bitterness of party malevolence the grievances of the citizen have been forgotten. Our people have been taxed till the most industrious and economical are scarcely able to procure the necessaries of life. Who can behold the hand of the tax-gatherer seizing as it were with stern and inexorable grasp the scanty pittance which is all that is left, to supply the rites of decent christian burial to an honored and respected citizen, without knowing and feeling that there is much in our government that needs reform at the ballot box!

Neither attempt to bribe or intimidate others, nor suffer yourselves to be bribed or intimidated.

Let us not forget that in a wild crusade in the name of freedom to the colored man, that both races are about to be enchained in a slavery of absolute despotism! This can only be averted by the free and independent exercise of the right of suffrage, which is truly "inestimable to freemen and formidable to tyrants only."

We have no patronge, bayonets or gold, to aid us in this contest; and if we had we would scorn their use! Truth, justice and reason are our only weapons; and before these the corrupter's gold will melt; the tyrants' glittering bayonets will rust and crumble into dust; and the bolts and bars of bastiles and prisons will fly open to proclaim a glorious deliverance to the innocent victims of oppression without regard to race, color or previous condition!—Trial by jury, the writ of habeas corpus and the elective franchise, so dear to freemen, are all imperiled! And the sacred memories of the past, the dangers of the present, the forebodings of the future, appeal alike to your interest, your honor and your patriotism, to rally at the polls in defence of these, the last safe guards of civil and religious liberty!

Your friend,
DAVID S. REID.

July 26, 1870.

The following we take from the Fayetteville Eagle. It speaks for itself:

CEDAR CREEK TOWNSHIP, July 1870.

To the people of Cumberland county:

We, the undersigned, having heretofore acted and voted with the Republican party, take this method of announcing ourselves out of the party, and in the future will use our ballot and influence to place good and honest men in office. The Radicals have failed in every promise they ever made the people. They promised retrenchment and reform, and all they have done is to fill the pockets of the office holder with the people's money; bankrupt the State and ruin its credit; tax the people almost intolerably and totally destroy our internal improvements for years to come. We earnestly beg all good and honest men to join us in helping to put honest men in office.

NEW SYSTEM,

devised by its talented and distinguished Actuary CHAS. B. MORGAN, which must make it the leading Company in America, for persons in and all who appreciate and demand the most UNQUESTIONABLE SECURITY, at rates in many cases, some decidedly lower than those of the leading Mutual Cash Companies.

The Excelsior issues Policies on all the plans of Mutual or Stock Companies, extending to policy holders, all the really desirable advantages. Its policies bring non-forfeiting, the insured enjoys its profits, are allowed 30 days grace for payment of renewal of premium, a cash surrender value of policy, and a privilege which has never been offered by any other Company, that of converting Policies into after the payment of 5 or more annual premiums.

☞ Hitherto, I have been restricted in the very popular Company which I had the honor to represent to Stock rates alone, which most of the Mutual, and mixed Companies have adopted. This disadvantage, together with the multiplication of many new Companies, in this State, who Excelsior induced me to accept the management of that Company, whose plan combines all the popular features of other Companies, represented in this State, without an exception, and the additional privilege of converting policies, which the holder can not afford to keep up, or wishes to discontinue, because of the death of those for whose benefit the policy was secured, into an Annuity Bond which provides an income to each through life, or for a series of years as preferred.

Circulars giving full explanations and any other information, will be cheerfully furnished.

The most liberal arrangements, will be made with first class solicitors, to push the Excelsior forward in the Old North State, to that position which her low rates and most ample security entitle her to occupy.

REGISTER! REGISTER!!

There is but little over a week to the day of election. Every voter in Wake county must register or he cannot vote. Don't neglect it a day, but register, and then go quietly to the polls and cast your vote against the corruptions and oppressions; the military humbugs and high taxations that are grinding you to the earth and eating up the products of your labor.

Col. L. C. Edwards Conservative candidate for the Senate, will address the people of Person County at Holloway's on the 27th inst., at Woodsdale on the 28th, and at Roxboro on the 30th.

Melancholy Accident.—About 4 o'clock this afternoon, Tom McKee, colored, was shot and almost instantly killed by Henry Allen, a youth sixteen years old, clerk for Mr. S. D. Harrison.

The shooting was accidental. Young Allen picked up the gun and cocked it, while the muzzle pointed towards the deceased, when the hammer fell, and the gun went off, the load taking effect in the breast of McKee. He staggered back, and soon fell dead.

These are the facts as we hastily gathered them. Special Coroner Magnin has summoned a jury of inquest, but we go to press before they return their verdict.

Mechanics Fire Company.—As we mentioned yesterday, this well appointed and fine looking Company was out on parade yesterday afternoon, with their engine in holiday trim, and attracted as much attention as the extremely warm weather would permit.

We congratulate the Company on its fine organization and discipline. The No. 2 would prove a valuable adjunct should its services be required, and we hope our citizens will properly foster, not only this, but all the other Fire Companies in the city.—We have a very efficient fire Department now, and it behooves the people especially the property owners of the city, to see to it that they do not dwindle away for want of proper encouragement and assistance.

Gone!—The Standard says the Emperor of the Ku Klux has gone, run away. All right. Now, if the President of the Leagues will follow his example, the State will be rid of two of its worst curses, and we may then have peace.

S. P. H., Smithfield—the article you desired to be sent you has been placed in the hands of a citizen of your county, and will be properly used. We advise you to look out, as this is only one of four, all differing, but alike spurious.

There will be no privateering in the war between France and Prussia. It is forbidden by the "Paris Declaration" of 1856, which was signed by the Plenipotentiaries of England, France, Prussia, Austria, Russia, Sardinia, and Turkey. The exact language of the four points then agreed upon is as follows:

1. Privateering is and remains abolished.
2. The neutral flag covers enemy's goods, with the exception of contraband of war.
3. Neutral goods, with the exception of contraband of war, are not liable to capture under enemy's flag.
4. Blockades, in order to be binding must be effective; that is to say, maintained by a force sufficient really to prevent access to the coast of the enemy.

The American Government, it will be remembered, declined to become a party to the above declaration.—N. Y. Tribune.

The Life Sustaining Principle.

The vital and the muscular systems are entirely distinct from each other. A man may have the brawn of a Hercules, but if he is deficient in vital energy he will not wear as well, or last as long or be as healthy and happy while he does last, as the man of ordinary, or even slender build, who possesses a larger share of this animating principle. One of the greatest recommendations of that pure vegetable invigorant, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, is that it increases the vital force of the system. No medicine can double the volume of a man's muscle, or thicken and vulcanize his sinews; but Hostetter's Bitters has an effect much more important. It can penetrate to the fountain of vigor. It reinforces the life-power, of which bone and sinew and muscle are merely the instrumentals, holding the same relation to it that machinery does to steam. Let the slight and apparently fragile take heart, they may have more stamina, though far less physical strength, than the broad shouldered athletes they regard with envy. To restore to sustain, to increase this stamina principal which, when in full supply, is the source of health and the best guarantee of longevity, is a special property of the famous restorative. It is not only a specific for dyspepsia, biliousness, intermittent fevers, constipation, &c., and a preventive of all diseases of a malarious character, but the best of all medicines for strengthening the constitution and awakening the powers of nature from whatever cause they may have become lethargic.

JUDGE PEARSON vs. JUDGE PEARSON.

Hear what this Dogberry Judge said in 1863, when William Wyriek, like A. G. Moore, Judge Kerr and others, had before him a petition for a writ of habeas corpus:

"Will it be said, this denial of justice is necessary for the good of the public to prevent desertion; God forbid! Fiat justicia, ruat coelum;" let justice be done without regard to consequences."

That is what Judge Pearson said in 1863; we have all read what he has said in 1870.

In addition to the above, we give a little excerpt from the North Carolina Standard, of January 20th 1864, then as now, the organ of W. W. Holden. It is as follows:

PROPOSITION TO SUSPEND HABEAS CORPUS.

In the House of Representatives, on the 13th in., Mr. Gartrell, of Ga., from the Judiciary Committee, reported a bill to authorize the suspension of the writ of habeas corpus, which was read a first and second time and placed on the calendar.—The following is a copy of the bill:

The Congress of the Confederate States do enact, That during the present invasion of the Confederate States, the President shall have power to suspend the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus in any city, town, or military district, whenever, in his judgment, the public safety may require it, but such suspension shall apply only to arrests made by the authority of the Confederate government or for offences against the same.

Sec. 2. The President shall cause proper officers to investigate the cases of all persons so arrested, in order that they may be discharged if improperly detained, unless they can be speedily tried in due course of law.

Sec. 3. This act shall continue in force for thirty days after the next meeting of Congress and no longer.

If this bill should become a law it will make the President, if he chooses to be so, a dictator. It will silence our Judiciary, the press and close the mouths of our people, with the exception of those who may love the administration. God save the Confederacy from such madness.

"LAWLESSNESS IN THE SOUTH."

We copy the following sensible remarks from the New York Times (Republican) of the 20th inst., for the benefit of those who may not yet be convinced of Holden's motive in his present military movements:

The sea-serpent and the monster goose-berry render periodical service to a certain class of newspapers. There are others, and those, we are sorry to say, of the Republican faith, which, with marvelous regularity, descant upon "the reign of lawlessness in the South." The heading appears periodically. We accept it as a sign, when Congress is in session, that some extravagant measure is in contemplation. At other times, the stale story is intended to serve some election purpose, or to afford a semblance of justification for some extraordinary assumption of authority of the kind with which Gov. Holden is familiarizing North Carolina and startling the country. Whatever the end to be served, we are quite sure that usually there is an unavowed purpose, the accomplishment of which seems to render expedient the awakening of popular indignation against the South. Everybody knows what "firing the Southern heart" meant in days before the war. The reign of lawlessness in the South" is a stereotyped expression, which is used to fire the Radical heart when the tendency in matters political is to indifference and stagnation.

READ IT.

The only decent thing that has appeared in the Standard lately, is its endorsement, yesterday, of ex-Gov. David S. Reid. By a remarkable co-incidence, about the time the Governor was penning this endorsement of Gov. Reid, Gov. Reid was penning a most sensible, timely and moderate address to the people of North Carolina, which we publish in another column, and we ask everybody to read it and practice it, especially that part of it which speaks of the duty of every good citizen at the approaching election.

[From the Sunday World.]

France possesses several special or extra corps entirely distinct from the regular army, the National Guard, or the marines. One of them, and perhaps the most peculiar and eccentric, are the Zouaves. There are two kinds of Zouaves, the African or original Zouaves, who, in time of peace, are always stationed in Africa, and whose strength there is about 12,000 men, and the Zouaves imites, or imitation Zouaves, who are armed, equipped, and drilled like the original corps, but do not possess the same perfection in manœuvering, &c. These latter are only stationed a part of the time in Africa; the greater part they are stationed in various parts of France. In there armament the Zouaves differ materially from the regular infantry, particularly in their bayonets, which have the shape of scythes, and their side arm, which is the Algerian yatughan—that is, the peculiar short-sword of the Kabyles; also, in so far that they prefer to use their own private revolvers.

One of their eccentricities is their love for cats, and they prefer as pets the large gray and black cat of Algeria. The training of these cats is admirable. They know not only all the soldiers, but also their fourfooted comrades belonging to the same battalion, and easily pick out their own masters under all circumstances. They are very obedient to them, and not only on the march, but also in battle, take up their positions on their knapsacks—from which position they participate in the fight according to their own peculiar style, by jumping into the face of the enemy, and scratching and biting in a furious manner. During the Crimean war, the wounds in the faces of the Russian soldiers from these cats were so serious and numerous that they had to establish at Odessa a separate ward in the hospital for the better healing of them.

In climbing up and attacking a rocky height the Zouaves command their cats to the front to lead the way, and carefully watching the way the cats take, they follow them closely, and take advantage of every foothold pointed out by their trusty and agile comrades.

Thursday Night Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

Washington, July 28.—Revenue to-day $710,000.

Admiral Farragut is very sick.

In the present unsettled condition of the affairs, diplomatic communications go by special messengers. Three messengers have been dispatched since the commencement of the complications. The dispatches carried have, it is said, no extraordinary significance.

The President writes that he will not call an extra session of Congress unless European hostilities make it necessary. He goes to St. Louis in a few days.

The State Department has advices from the United States Consul to the following effect, dated Hong Kong, February 9th: "I have the honor to report that the French bark, "Ville De St. Le," Dodeau, master, sailed hence to-day with two hundred Chinese emigrants and passengers for New Orleans. This is probably the first emigrant ship which has sailed from China to the east coast of the United States. These people are sent by the Arkansas River Valley Immigration Company, to be employed as plantation or farm work in the Valley of the Arkansas River. They have been subjected by me to a very severe and rigid examination as to their knowledge of the country they were going to, their wants, &c. Each individual was personally examined by the Colonial Surgeon as to his health and fitness to undertake the voyage. The provisions were carefully inspected by the Harbor master. In fact all the requirements of the local authorities were fully complied with. They left this port, free and voluntary emigrants, and were not only willing but anxious to go.

FOREIGN.

London, July 28.—The Times commenting on the secret treaty says, 'tis clear that both parties are involved in the conspiracy, touching which both should make a clean breast. The North German Confederation will exhibit other similar overtures from Napoleon.

The people of St. Petersburg are furious because Russia interests English and Irish journals.

The Times fears that Belgium's good understanding with France is due to her hatred of Prussia.

The war premium on French bonds is one half of one per cent.

A French cruiser off the Isle of Wight is boarding merchantmen.

Paris, July 28.—Prussia complains that England furnishes arms and coal to the French.

The Emperor in a letter to the commander of the National Guard says: "Dear General, I desire you to express on my part, to the Guard National, of Paris, how much I count on its patriotism and devotion when I am about to set out for the army. I have to testify to the confidence which I repose in its will and ability to maintain order in Paris and to contribute to the security of the regency of the Empress.

The Journal Officiel contains a correspondence from St. Petersburg. Russia does not sympathize with Prussia. Prussia wishes to make a Prussian lake of the Baltic, and threatens the independence of half of Germany.

Liverpool, July 28.—All demonstrations in favor of Prussia or of France are forbidden.

Friday Evening Dispatches.

NEW YORK

New York, July 29.—The yatch "Dauntless" lost three hour in the vain attempt to save two men that were washed overboard.

FOREIGN.

Berlin, July 29.—Rogue American agents are buying arms for France at Lieja.

The French lost one officer and eight men in the skirmish at Valke gun. One Prussian was wounded.

London, July 29.—The people of the Danubian Provinces are preparing to take advantage of the war to strike for independence, hence the preparation on the part of Turkey.

Everything indicates a battle within three days.

The Prussians have four hundred thousand men on the River Saar, between Areves and Metzig. Opposing, the French have three hundred thousand.

The "Warrior" is commissioned to bring the crown Princess of Prussia to England.

Count Von Bismarck in his dispatch to the North German Ambassador to England, confirms the authenticity of the secret treaty, published in the London "Times." He says since 1866 France has incessantly tempted Prussia with offers of territorial aggrandizement at the expense of Belgium and South Germany. He is confident that France will not obtain any extention of territory, even by fighting for it, and says if the disclosures made by the "Times" had been withheld, France though fully armed, would have rejected her offer of peace at the cost of an extension of the kingdom of Belgium.

The floor, galleries and lobbies of the House of Lords are crowded with privileged visitors and other spectators, desirous to hear the state Government's position in the present war. The Earl of Granville said the Government was embarrassed by the explosive material lying around it with matches ready to be lighted; efforts to extinguish which had been useless, though Lord Lyons had been able to hold back a declaration of war for five days. The incident at Ems between Benedetti and the King of Prussia was remarkable, but no insult was intended. All observances of the Paris protocol, which provides for the settlement of disputes by mediation were repudiated by both parties. In the presence of this war England had but one duty to observe, namely, strict neutrality.

Lords Malmesbury and Russell approved of the attitude assumed by the Government. War was wholly needless and unreasonable. The Parliament would certainly sustain the Government in its policy of neutrality, and await an opportunity for intervention.

Paris, July 29.—The following is the proclamation of the Emperor to the army on assuming command in person:

Soldiers:—I come to take my place at your head to defend the honor of the soil of our country. You go to combat against one of the best armed of the European countries, but other countries as valiant as this have not been able to resist your valor. It will be the same to-day. The war which now commences, will be long and hardly contested for its theatre will be places hedged with obstacles, and thick with fortresses, but nothing is beyond the persevering efforts of the soldiers of Africa, Italy and Mexico. You will prove once more what the French army is able to accomplish when animated by a sentiment of duty, maintained by discipline and influenced by love of country. Whatever road we may take across our frontiers, we will find upon it glorious traces of our fathers, and we will show ourselves worthy of them. All France follows you with confident prayers, and the eyes of the universe are upon you. Upon our success depends the fate of liberty and civilization. Soldiers let each one do his duty and the God of battles will be with us.

(Signed.) NAPOLEON.

This Valuable Family Medicine has been widely and favorably known in our own and foreign countries upwards of

THIRTY YEARS!

It has lost none of its good name by repeated trials, but continues to occupy a prominent position in every family medicine chest.

It is an External and Internal Remedy. For Summer Complaints, or any other form of bowel disease in children or adults, it is an almost certain cure, and has without doubt, been more successful in curing the various kinds of cholera than any other known remedy, or the most skilful physicians. In India, Africa and China, where this dreadful disease is more or less prevalent, the Pain Killer is considered by the natives, as well as European residents in those climates, a sure remedy; and while it is a most efficient remedy for it, it is a perfectly safe medicine, even in unskillful hands. A New Discovery!! Phalon's "Vitalia;" or, Salvation for the Hair.

CLEAR AS WATER!
WITHOUT SEDIMENT!!!
OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!!

For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.

Phalon's "Vitalia" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is limpid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and cloudless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

The Vitalia is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.

The "Utley Cotton Press."

So well known, and which gave entire satisfaction last season, can be obtained of me at Raleigh, or my agents Messrs. Mitchell, Allen & Co., Newbern.

Read Certificates below.

THOS. H. BRIGGS.

Pittsboro', N. C., May 6th, 1870.

T. H. Briggs, Esq.: Dear Sir:—I used the "Utley Cotton Press" I purchased from you last season, and consider it to be the best I ever saw. Having packed bales in weight from five hundred and ninety (590) to six hundred and twelve pounds (612) I consider it the fast and most durable Press I ever saw used, and can cheerfully recommend its use to the farmers of North Carolina.

Yours truly, C. W. BYNUM.

Franklinton, N. C., April 26th, 1870.

Mr. Thomas H. Briggs: Dear Sir:—Yours of 13th instant inquiring as to the merits of the "Utley Cotton Press" is to hand, and in reply I would say that I have tried other Presses and consider the gain upon which the Utley Press works cheaper, simpler and more durable than any I have met with.

Yours very respectfully,

JAS. B. WILDER.

Rock Laws, Cumberland Co., N. C., April 23rd, 1870.

Thos. H. Briggs, Esq.: Dear Sir.—In reply to yours of the 19th asking how I was pleased with the Utley Press I used last season, I would say that it gave entire satisfaction.

Respectfully yours, CHAS. H. BLOCKER

Hillsboro', N. C., April 22nd, 1870.

Thos. H. Briggs, Esq., Raleigh, N. C.: Sir.—I have used "Utley's Cotton Press" for baling hay for eleven months. It works well and gives entire satisfaction. I regard it as the best Hay Press I have seen.

Respectfully, E. H. POGUE.

Raleigh, N. C., June 18th, 1870.

T. H. Briggs, Esq., Raleigh, N. C.: Dear Sir:—I used the "Utley Cotton Press" I purchased from you last season. I packed my own crop of cotton also other crops for my neighbors, making in all one hundred bales. I consider it superior in all respects to any Press I have ever seen and that it in every thing the patentee represents. I packed bales weighing four hundred to five hundred and ninety-seven pounds.

Yours truly, W. T. BOWLE.

GENERAL AGENTS,

CHARLOTTE N. C.

THE EQUITABLE

HAS BECOME THE LEADING COMPANY OF THE WORLD.

Its New Business (sum assured), for the year 1869, exceeded that of the second company in rank by more than Thirteen Million Dollars.

In 1860 it was the 9th Company in new business for the year; in 1861 it was the 8th; in 1862 and 1863, the 7th; in 1864 and 1865 the 6th; in 1866, the 4th; in 1867, the 3d; in 1868, the 2nd;

In 1869 it was the FIRST.

The insuring public should not allow itself to be deceived with regard to the term "Annual Dividends." Many companies using this expression mean that their dividends are "annual" after THEY HAVE BEEN PAID TWENTY YEARS AT ALL; but they do NOT BEGIN TO PAY until the settlement of the third, fourth, or fifth premium.

One hundred Dollars paid in dividends, at the end of one year, and each year thereafter, equals four hundred and thirty-six dollars paid at the end of four years, interest at six per cent.

Applications for Assurance may be made to any of the Society Agents throughout the country, or in person or by letter to the General Agents.

Gentlemen of character desirous of forming a connection with the Society as Agents are invited to communicate with its General Agents.

THE AMERICAN COMBINATION

Button Hole & Sewing Machine

Has been honored with the Highest award in premiums and diplomas wherever entered for competition at fairs and exhibitions held during the past season.

THE SIMPLICITY, EASE AND CERTAINTY with which this machine operates as well as the uniform excellence of its work throughout the entire range of Sewing, in

Stitching, Hemming, Felling, Tucking, Cording, Braiding Quilting, Gathering & Sewing on, Overseaming, Embroidering on the Edge, and its Beautiful Button-Hole and Eyelet Hole Work,

Place it unquestionably far in advance of any other similar invention

It is also the CHEAPEST Intrinsically, as well as the BEST, since it is really TWO MACHINES combined in one, (by a simple and beautiful mechanical arrangement never before accomplished by human ingenuity) making either the Lock Stitch or Button-Hole Stitch, as occasion may require. It is at the same time, simple in construction, competitively priceless, easily understood, and in a word, it combines with those ADVANTAGES, EXCLUSIVELY ITS OWN, THE MOST DESIRABLE QUALITIES OF ALL OTHERS.

SWEET QUININE

Is a Recent Improvement.

Replaces the use of the BITTER SULPHATE QUININE, with which all are familiar.

Dose for dose, it is

WARRANTED

Fully equal in every way to Bitter Quinine,

AND, LIKE IT, IS THE ONE

Great, Positive, and Unfailing

CURE

For all Diseases of Malarious Origin.

Fever and Ague,
Intermittent Fever,
Chill Fever,
Remittent Fever,
Bilious Fever,
Dumb Ague,

and the long train of disorders following these when neglected.

SWEET QUININE

is made solely from Peruvian Bark, (so is Bitter Quinine), therefore is of Vegetable origin, and not a Mineral poison. But on the contrary is proved to be one of the elements found in the blood of all healthy persons.

SWEET QUININE

acts as an antidote to, as well as a cure for, malarial or miasmatic poison, the absorption of which by the lungs causes Intermittent Fevers, etc. The only advantage claimed for over the use of old Bitter Quinine is the entire absence of that intense, persistent bitterness, which in the latter is an insurmountable obstacle to its use with most persons, and always with children.

SWEET QUININE

is in two forms—in POWDER, for the use of Physicians and Druggists, and FLUID, for use in the family and for the general public.

NON-EXPLOSIVE COMBINATION BURNING FLUID

THE CHEAPEST, BEST AND SAFEST ILLUMINATING AGENT IN THE WORLD!!

No more Exploded Cans!—No more Exploded Lamps!

No more Smoke!—No more Grease!

No more Fires!!

EVERYBODY PREFERS IT AFTER GIVING IT A TRIAL!

IT costs less!—It lasts longer!—Gives a more Brilliant Light!—May be burned in hand lamps, without chimney.

Guaranteed to make a better and safer Light than Coal Oil and to be NON-EXPLOSIVE!!!

No accidents have ever happened with it.

Protected by Copy right for 28 years from May 6th 1868.

The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivalled reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound. Soft, clear, steady and uninjurious to the eyes. All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 15th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

DOUBLE-ACTING FORCE PUMP.

THIS Pump will pump 20 gallons of water per minute, will never get out the packing, has no friction, no water ever stands in the pipes to freeze, and is less liable to get out of order than any other pump now used. It can be set up in a short time by any ordinary mechanic.

Having the exclusive right to this pump for the states of North and South Carolina, and having established a factory for the manufacture of them at Wilson, N. C., I will receive orders for them at Wilson, and will ship them by Express C. O. D., or, if the money is sent me, by the regular freight. MR. J. L. KITCHIN:

DEAR SIR.—We certify that the "Balding Pumps" put up by you in the town of Scotland Neck are a perfect success. They pump very rapidly, and by attaching hose, will throw water from 40 to 60 feet and would prove invaluable in case of fire.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA, WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skill and care in the selection of risks,—upon which elements of administration the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the Cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important safeguard. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.

Gen'l. S. B. BUCKNER, Manager Southern Dep't.

The Globe has peculiar claims upon the Southern country, from having first introduced the non-forfeiting features in all its policies. Its President, Mr. Pliny Freeman, was the inventor of the ten-year, non-forfeiture plan, and introduced it in the Company with which he was then connected.

The Globe takes no notes; but receives its premiums in cash, and pays its policies in cash, without deduction.

To those desiring it, the Company will issue policies, registered and certified by the Superintendent of the Insurance Department of New York, as "secured by pledge of public stock."
